Welcome to the Business Club at Sea,

an exclusive community of entrepreneurs that has been bringing business leaders together since 2017.

Through the Business Club at Sea, we organize networking events for entrepreneurs in some of the world's most spectacular destinations aboard luxury cruise ships. Together with our members, we have traveled across the globe—from the exotic beaches of the Caribbean to the breathtaking coastlines of the Far East.

What is the Business Club at Sea?

It is much more than travel. It is a unique platform that connects entrepreneurs from different industries and countries. Our mission is to help business owners overcome the challenges of running a company while supporting them in finding new clients, trusted business partners, and valuable opportunities for growth.

At the Business Club at Sea, we believe in building a community of successful entrepreneurs who not only achieve outstanding business results but are also committed to continuous personal and professional development while supporting others on their journey to success.

We bring together business leaders facing similar challenges, creating meaningful relationships that extend across Poland and international markets.

WHY DO ENTREPRENEURS JOIN THE CLUB?

Premium business networking

International business connections

Business and personal brand development

Exclusive events and experiences

Mutual referrals and trusted recommendations

*"The greatest value of the Club is not the places we visit.
It is the people we meet."*

ABOUT THE CLUB

Our Mission:

The Business Club at Sea brings together ambitious entrepreneurs by creating an environment where they can exchange knowledge, share inspiration, and build meaningful relationships that foster both personal and professional growth.

Our mission is to create exceptional opportunities where the pursuit of success meets new possibilities, enabling like-minded business leaders to combine their expertise, networks, and experience for mutual benefit.

Why Join the Business Club at Sea?

Premium Networking — The Business Club at Sea is a community where entrepreneurs, executives, and business leaders from a wide range of industries come together. It provides exceptional opportunities to exchange experiences, gain fresh perspectives, and develop valuable business partnerships.

Business & Personal Brand Growth — Through regular meetings, business cruises, and exclusive events, members can effectively promote their products and services while strengthening both their companies and their personal brands within the business community.

Trusted Referrals — Club members actively support one another through referrals, recommendations, and strategic collaborations, creating new opportunities for business growth, partnerships, and client acquisition.

Exclusive Events

Every cruise is carefully designed to combine high-value business sessions, inspiring keynote presentations, and unforgettable travel experiences.

In addition to our cruises, we organize exclusive gala evenings, networking events, and professional workshops that help members expand their skills, broaden their business horizons, and build long-lasting relationships.

The year 2025 was an exceptionally dynamic and inspiring one for the Business Club at Sea.

Together with our members, we explored Australia, China, and Japan, sailed through the breathtaking Greek Islands, and embarked on an unforgettable Caribbean cruise.

One of the year's highlights was an extraordinary New Year's celebration in South America. We welcomed the New Year aboard a luxury cruise ship before discovering the vibrant atmosphere of Rio de Janeiro, combining leisure with international networking and meaningful business relationships.

The year 2026 began with the Second Business Club at Sea Gala in Warsaw, bringing together entrepreneurs from across Poland.

The event featured business presentations, networking sessions, one-to-one meetings, and a prestigious gala evening, further strengthening our community and reinforcing our vision for the future.

Another remarkable milestone was our Alaska Business Cruise, where participants combined business development and relationship-building with the opportunity to explore one of the world's most spectacular natural destinations.

HONOLULU January 27 – January 30, 2027

USA

Honolulu is the vibrant capital of Hawaii, located on the island of Oahu, offering a unique blend of paradise beaches, exotic nature, and the authentic spirit of aloha.

The city combines luxurious hotels, modern architecture, and rich Hawaiian culture with breathtaking views of the Pacific Ocean and dramatic volcanic landscapes.

It is the perfect destination for both relaxing on world-famous beaches and actively discovering Hawaii's unique attractions, traditions, and local lifestyle.

WHAT IS WORTH SEEING

Waikiki Beach

Waikiki Beach is Hawaii's most famous beach and an iconic symbol of Honolulu, renowned for its soft golden sand and turquoise waters of the Pacific Ocean.

It is the birthplace of modern surfing culture, with gentle waves attracting both beginners and experienced surfers from around the world. Along the shoreline, visitors will find luxury hotels, restaurants, bars, and a vibrant promenade perfect for evening walks while enjoying breathtaking sunsets.

Diamond Head

The hike to the summit follows a scenic trail through tunnels and historic military fortifications, offering spectacular views of the ocean and the Oahu coastline along the way. From the top, visitors can admire a breathtaking panorama of Waikiki, the deep blue Pacific, and the island's lush tropical landscape.

Pearl Harbor

Pearl Harbor is one of Hawaii's most significant historical sites, connected to the attack on December 7, 1941, which brought the United States into World War II.

The site features the USS Arizona Memorial, a museum, and numerous exhibitions dedicated to naval history and wartime events. It is a place of remembrance that offers visitors the opportunity to learn about the history of the Pacific and pay tribute to those who lost their lives.

Iolani Palace

Iolani Palace is the only royal palace located in the United States and was the former residence of Hawaii's last monarchs.

The palace impresses visitors with its elegant architecture, luxurious interiors, and fascinating history of the Hawaiian royal family. Guests can explore the royal chambers, historic rooms, and discover the remarkable story of the Kingdom of Hawaii.

Hanauma Bay

Its crystal-clear waters and colorful coral reef provide an opportunity to observe hundreds of species of tropical fish and marine life in their natural environment. Surrounded by lush green hills, the bay offers an unforgettable tropical landscape and a peaceful atmosphere perfect for relaxation.

KAHULUI January 31 – February 1, 2027

USA

Kahului is the main city and the most important transportation hub of the island of Maui, serving as the perfect gateway to discovering one of Hawaii's most beautiful islands.

The region is known for its breathtaking landscapes, tropical beaches, majestic volcanoes, and scenic routes winding through lush rainforests.

Kahului is an ideal starting point for exploring Maui's natural treasures—a destination often considered the most diverse and romantic island in the Hawaiian archipelago.

WHAT IS WORTH SEEING

Road to Hāna

The Road to Hāna is one of the most scenic drives in the world, leading through tropical rainforests, cascading waterfalls, and spectacular coastal landscapes.

The route stretches for over 100 kilometers, featuring hundreds of curves and numerous bridges, offering unforgettable views of Maui's untouched nature. The journey itself is an attraction, allowing visitors to discover some of the island's most exotic and hidden treasures.

Haleakalā National Park

Haleakalā is a massive volcano rising over 3,000 meters above sea level, with a name meaning "House of the Sun."

The national park captivates visitors with its otherworldly lunar landscapes, colorful volcanic formations, and extraordinary views above the clouds. Watching the sunrise from the summit of Haleakalā is considered one of the most spectacular experiences in Hawaii.

ʻĪao Valley State Monument

Its iconic feature is the approximately 370-meter-high ʻĪao Needle, surrounded by lush tropical vegetation. Scenic walking trails lead through the green valley, offering breathtaking views and an opportunity to discover the history and heritage of ancient Hawaii.

Maui Beaches

Maui is famous for some of the most beautiful beaches in Hawaii, offering perfect conditions for relaxation, snorkeling, and water sports.

Visitors can enjoy everything from wide golden-sand beaches to more exotic shores featuring red or black volcanic sand. Crystal-clear waters and spectacular sunsets attract travelers from around the world.

Humpback Whale Watching

The waters surrounding Maui are among the best places in the world for observing humpback whales, which migrate here every year from Alaska to breed in the warm waters of the Pacific Ocean.

During the winter season, visitors can witness the impressive breaches of these magnificent creatures and observe their natural behavior from boat excursions or from the shoreline. It is one of the island's most unforgettable experiences.

HILO February 2, 2027

USA

Hilo is the lush green heart of the Big Island of Hawaii, located on its eastern coast and renowned for its tropical landscapes, spectacular waterfalls, and authentic Hawaiian atmosphere.

The city delights visitors with its abundant vegetation, exotic gardens, and close proximity to active volcanic areas that create the region's unique and dramatic scenery.

Hilo is the perfect destination for nature lovers, explorers of local culture, and those seeking a more peaceful and traditional side of Hawaii.

WHAT IS WORTH SEEING

Hawaii Volcanoes National Park

Near Hilo lies one of the most extraordinary national parks in the world — Hawaii Volcanoes National Park, where visitors can admire active volcanoes and landscapes shaped by ancient and recent lava flows.

The park offers scenic hiking trails through solidified lava fields, volcanic craters, and tropical rainforests. It is a truly unique destination where guests can experience the power of nature and discover the geological history of the Hawaiian Islands.

Rainbow Falls

Rainbow Falls is one of Hawaii's most famous waterfalls, located among lush tropical vegetation near the center of Hilo.

On sunny days, the mist rising from the waterfall creates beautiful rainbows, which inspired its name. Its picturesque surroundings and easy accessibility make it one of the region's most popular attractions.

Lili'uokalani Gardens

Lili'uokalani Gardens is the largest authentic Japanese garden outside Japan, offering a peaceful atmosphere, exotic vegetation, and beautiful ocean views.

The gardens feature traditional Japanese-inspired elements, including bridges, stone lanterns, ponds, and elegant pavilions. It is the perfect place for a relaxing walk surrounded by tropical nature.

Hilo Farmers Market

The local market in Hilo is one of the best places to experience the authentic spirit of Hawaii and taste regional products.

Visitors can discover exotic fruits, fresh flowers, locally grown coffee, Hawaiian spices, and handcrafted products created by island residents. The colorful atmosphere of the market perfectly reflects the genuine character of Hilo.

Tropical Beaches and Black Lava Coastlines

The area surrounding Hilo is known for its unique beaches, dramatic black lava landscapes, and untouched tropical nature.

The coastline impresses with the striking contrast between dark volcanic rocks, vibrant green vegetation, and the deep blue Pacific Ocean. It is an ideal place to explore Hawaii's natural beauty and admire extraordinary landscapes shaped by volcanic activity.

KONA February 3, 2027

USA

Kona is a picturesque region located on the western coast of the Big Island of Hawaii, renowned for its exotic landscapes, world-famous coffee plantations, and extraordinary marine life.

The destination captivates visitors with its unique combination of volcanic scenery, paradise beaches, and the peaceful spirit of Hawaii, creating the perfect setting for both relaxation and active exploration.

Kona is also one of the best places in Hawaii for snorkeling, diving, and experiencing spectacular sunsets over the Pacific Ocean.

WHAT IS WORTH SEEING

Kailua-Kona

Kailua-Kona is a charming seaside town located on the western coast of the Big Island of Hawaii, known for its pleasant climate, palm-lined promenades, and stunning ocean views.

A walk through the town center reveals local restaurants, Hawaiian craft shops, and atmospheric bars featuring live music. It is the perfect place to experience the relaxed spirit of Hawaii and admire spectacular sunsets over the Pacific Ocean.

Kona Coffee Plantations

The Kona region is world-famous for producing Kona Coffee, considered one of the finest coffees in the world.

Thanks to fertile volcanic soil and a unique climate, the coffee beans grown here have an exceptionally smooth and aromatic flavor. Visitors can explore local plantations, learn about the coffee-making process, taste freshly roasted beans, and enjoy beautiful views of the coastline.

Snorkeling and Manta Rays

Kona is famous for its extraordinary ocean experiences, with one of the most unique being night snorkeling or diving with giant manta rays.

These majestic creatures are attracted by underwater lights and swim remarkably close to participants, creating an unforgettable underwater spectacle. Crystal-clear waters and abundant marine life make Kona a paradise for diving and water sports enthusiasts.

Pu'uhonua o Hōnaunau National Historical Park

Also known as the "Place of Refuge," this historic site was once a sanctuary for Hawaiians who had broken sacred kapu laws.

The park impresses visitors with traditional Hawaiian architecture, wooden tiki carvings, and a beautiful lava coastline. A walk through this remarkable place offers insight into the culture, traditions, and spiritual heritage of ancient Hawaii.

Volcanic Beaches and Landscapes

The Kona region features extraordinary landscapes shaped by volcanic activity.

Visitors can discover black lava-sand beaches, vast fields of hardened lava, and rugged coastlines contrasting with the intense blue waters of the Pacific Ocean. The exotic nature and unique atmosphere make Kona one of the most remarkable destinations in Hawaii.

NAWILIWILI February 4 – February 5, 2027

USA

Nawiliwili is the main harbor of the island of Kauaʻi, often called the “Garden Island” due to its extraordinary lush vegetation and spectacular natural landscapes.

The region captivates visitors with its scenic bays, breathtaking waterfalls, tropical rainforests, and some of the most beautiful views in all of Hawaii.

It is the perfect destination for nature lovers who want to explore the wild, authentic, and less developed side of the Hawaiian Islands.

WHAT IS WORTH SEEING

Nā Pali Coast

Nā Pali Coast is one of the most spectacular coastlines in the world, famous for its majestic cliffs rising hundreds of meters above the Pacific Ocean.

Lush green valleys, hidden beaches, and waterfalls cascading directly into the sea create a landscape that looks like a scene from a movie. It is one of Hawaii's most photographed destinations, admired from boat excursions, helicopter tours, and hiking trails.

Waimea Canyon

Known as the "Grand Canyon of the Pacific," Waimea Canyon impresses visitors with its vast scale and colorful rock formations in shades of red, green, and brown.

The canyon stretches approximately 16 kilometers in length and reaches over 900 meters in depth, offering numerous viewpoints with breathtaking panoramic scenery. It is one of the most beautiful natural wonders of the Hawaiian Islands.

Wailua Falls

Wailua Falls is a picturesque two-tiered waterfall approximately 50 meters high, surrounded by lush tropical vegetation.

On sunny days, rainbows often appear in the mist above the falling water, creating an unforgettable and highly photogenic landscape. The waterfall has become one of the symbols of Kaua'i and is frequently featured in images promoting Hawaii.

Fern Grotto i rzeka Wailua

The Wailua River is the only navigable river in Hawaii and leads to the famous Fern Grotto—a natural cave covered with exotic ferns.

A scenic boat ride through the tropical landscape allows visitors to discover the island's unique beauty and learn about legends connected with ancient Hawaiian culture. It is one of Kaua'i's most romantic and atmospheric experiences.

Po'ipū Beach

Po'ipū Beach is one of Hawaii's most beautiful beaches, known for its crystal-clear waters and excellent conditions for swimming and snorkeling.

Visitors can often spot Hawaiian monk seals resting on the sand and sea turtles swimming nearby. Stunning views, golden sand, and a peaceful atmosphere make it a must-see destination during a visit to Kaua'i.

HOTEL IN HONOLULU (WAIKIKI) / HAWAII, USA HALEPUNA WAIKIKI BY HALEKULANI ***

A modern and elegant hotel located in the heart of the famous Waikiki district, just a few minutes' walk from one of the world's most iconic beaches — Waikiki Beach.

Halepuna Waikiki by Halekulani belongs to the prestigious Halekulani hotel group and stands out for its exceptional service standards, intimate atmosphere, and unique Hawaiian-inspired style.

The hotel offers comfortable, spacious rooms and suites designed in a bright, contemporary style inspired by the natural beauty of the islands. Many rooms feature views of the Pacific Ocean, the Honolulu skyline, or the majestic slopes of Diamond Head.

One of the hotel's greatest highlights is the spectacular infinity pool located on the eighth floor, surrounded by a relaxing terrace and tropical greenery. Guests can also enjoy a modern fitness center, relaxation areas, and additional amenities provided by the neighboring luxury hotel Halekulani.

The hotel's excellent location provides easy access to numerous restaurants, boutiques, and Waikiki attractions. Nearby highlights include the Royal Hawaiian Center, International Market Place, Ala Moana Center, and the famous Diamond Head crater.

Halepuna Waikiki by Halekulani is the perfect base for both relaxing on the beach and discovering the most beautiful places on the island of O'ahu.

"The cruise is a very interesting experience — meeting people with diverse backgrounds and experience helps you find new directions and creates opportunities that bring valuable results in the future."

Katarzyna Jarczewska:

"I would like to congratulate Rafał Wiśniewski for organizing such a wonderful journey and creating an exceptional cruise experience. There are amazing people, a fantastic atmosphere, and networking opportunities that help build new relationships and meet inspiring individuals."

Beata Drzazga:

"It is worth joining a cruise because you meet many entrepreneurs here. Polish business leaders can share their experiences and inspire each other. I highly recommend these trips because they combine holidays with excellent opportunities for business development."

Mariusz Pokrzywko:

"Rafał Wiśniewski knows how to organize these events perfectly and select the right participants. Nobody gets bored here — everyone feels comfortable. This is one of the best trips I have ever experienced, and you will certainly not regret taking part in such an unforgettable adventure."

O'AHU AROUND THE PARADISE ISLAND

O'ahu - Around the Paradise Island

A fascinating journey around the island of O'ahu — a place where tropical nature, Hawaiian culture, and spectacular landscapes create unforgettable memories.

This is a unique opportunity to discover the most beautiful corners of the island known as the "Heart of Hawaii" during one extraordinary day.

WAIKIKI, KAHALA I DIAMOND HEAD

We begin in Waikiki, driving through the luxurious Kahala district and the area surrounding Diamond Head — one of Hawaii's most iconic landmarks.

WAIKIKI I DIAMOND HEAD

KAHALA

SCENIC COASTLINE & HALONA BLOWHOLE

Along the southern and eastern coast of O'ahu, we will discover turquoise lagoons, sandy beaches, and impressive volcanic cliffs.

We will stop at the famous Halona Blowhole, a natural ocean geyser created by waves forcing water through a lava tube.

HALONA BLOWHOLE

MAKAPU'U LOOKOUT

MAKAPU'U LOOKOUT

A spectacular viewpoint offering panoramic views of the ocean, nearby islands, and dramatic coastline. During whale migration season, visitors may have the chance to spot humpback whales in the distance.

VALLEY OF THE TEMPLES I BYODO-IN

We will visit the beautifully located Byodo-In Temple, a symbol of harmony and tranquility nestled at the foot of the majestic Ko'olau Mountains.

NORTH SHORE

NORTH SHORE - THE CAPITAL OF SURFING

World-famous beaches, powerful waves, and the unforgettable relaxed atmosphere of Hawaii's surfing culture. This area is also known as a place where visitors can often spot sea turtles resting along the shore.

DOLE PLANTATION

Discover the history of pineapple farming, taste the famous pineapple ice cream, and find unique souvenirs inspired by this tropical island.

DOLE PLANTATION

A PERFECT WAY TO DISCOVER O'AHU

This tour is an excellent choice for those who want to see the most important attractions of O'ahu in a short time, admire its natural beauty, and experience the authentic spirit of Hawaii.

BUSINESS CLUB AT SEA RECOMMENDATION

If you would also like to discover the historical side of O'ahu, we recommend considering arriving in Hawaii one or two days earlier or extending your stay after the cruise.

This will allow you to visit the legendary Pearl Harbor — a place of exceptional historical importance connected with events that changed the course of world history.
